ABOUT THE AUTHOR

Kathie Hibbins is the Education Coordinator for the Community Child Abuse Council and project manager for the “Stand Up! Speak Out! project. During her thirty-three years as an educator, she had experience as a classroom teacher, consultant, Family Studies Coordinator and Team Leader. Throughout her teaching career she co-wrote numerous Family Studies curriculum documents and contributed to the preparation of many resource documents for teachers. Kathie’s understanding of the adolescent learner and the requirements of curriculum have resulted in a resource curriculum that can be used on its own or integrated into a variety of subject areas.

INTRODUCTION

The Stand Up! Speak Out! project, including this Resource Curriculum, has been made possible through a grant from Canada's National Crime Prevention Strategy and is dedicated to the memory of Denyse Rodger-McQuilkin.

This resource is designed for use with students of Grade 7 and 8 age. Our goals are that youth, adults and the community as a whole will

- ☆ Understand the impact of bullying on its victims.
- ☆ Support the victims of bullying.
- ☆ Believe victims when they report incidents of bullying.
- ☆ Develop strategies for dealing with bullying.
- ☆ Establish consistent consequences for those who bully others.
- ☆ Be responsible and report incidents of bullying they witness.
- ☆ Take action to prevent and/or put an end to bullying.

Each lesson is designed to take approximately 25 – 30 minutes. Teachers and facilitators may modify and adapt the lessons to fit the needs of the learners and the time available. Although the lessons are arranged in an appropriate sequence, lessons may be arranged in an order that is appropriate for the audience and the objectives of the user.
